Current Internship Opportunities

(We build futures one success story at a time)

Development Intern

LHA Mental Health seeks an energetic development intern to assist with special projects and day-to-day operations. Ideal candidates will have an interest in profits. The internship will entail building relations, assisting with gift entry, mailings, and conducting internet research as needed. Special projects include development of online activities and foundation and major gift research. Candidates must be MS Office proficient and have strong internet research skills. Excellent written and verbal communication skills, including a professional phone presence, are desired. Interested applicants should send their Resume to HR@luishinesandassociates.com Please put "Development Intern" in the subject line.

Sales and Marketing Intern

Interested in gaining experience in the field of marketing? Mental Health LHA is in search of a motivated intern. The intern will assist with the promotion of publications and programming. This is a great opportunity to gain substantive real-world experience to build awareness, identify markets in which to promote LHA books, brochures, and other store materials, expand customer database, increase strategic partnerships with university public relations departments, and conduct internet market research.

Candidates should be college students or recent graduates preferably in Marketing/Advertisement or Business Management. Candidates must also have exceptional written and verbal communication skills, strong organizational skills, the ability to work independently as well as with a team, be extremely detail oriented with precise results, and show discretion, maturity and composure. Experience or interest in working in a healthcare or profit setting preferred. Proficiency in Microsoft Office software (Word, Excel, Outlook) and the Internet required.